

Free anti-bullying training for the children's workforce in Oxfordshire

- Are you a children's workforce professional?
- Do you want free training about how to reduce bullying among children?

The Anti-Bullying Alliance is delighted to announce that it is working with Oxfordshire County Council from April 2017 to October 2018 to become an All Together Area and work to reduce bullying of children in schools. As part of this we are offering FREE training to schools and the wider children's workforce in Oxfordshire.

OXFORDSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL

This flyer outlines the free training available to the wider children's workforce.

The training will cover:

- Bullying and its impact on children and young people
- Bullying and the law
- Children and young people with SEND and bullying – what does the evidence tell us?
- A social model approach to anti-bullying
- Challenging disablist language and hate speech
- How to apply this to your role

Who should attend?

We welcome attendance from any children's workforce professionals. By that we mean anyone working with schools and children such as:

- Social workers
- Youth Offending teams
- Post-16 providers
- School Governors
- LCSBs
- Healthcare professionals
- Early Years providers
- Youth workers
- Information, Advice and Support Workers
- School staff (we have a wider programme for schools but if you'd like to send extra members of staff on this course that is allowed)

What is All Together?

The All Together programme has been developed over the last three years and builds upon the work of the Anti-Bullying Alliance's previous SEND anti-bullying champion programme which saw significant positive results.

The programme includes a special focus on reducing bullying of disabled children and those with SEN but aims to reduce bullying of all children and young people.

The programme is funded by the Department for Education and delivered by the Anti-Bullying Alliance, with support from the Council for Disabled Children, Contact a Family and Achievement for All.
