

Free seminar: practicalities of starting up a business

Date: Wednesday 8 June 2016, 18:00 – 20:00

Cost: Free to attend but places are limited and must be booked in advance

Venue: Assembly Room, Oxford Town Hall, St Aldate's, Oxford, OX1 1BX

This event is the first in a series of free bespoke seminars that aims to help small and medium sized businesses and 'start-ups' in Oxfordshire to grow and develop their businesses. The first event will focus on the careful planning required in order to successfully start a new business.

Expert presentations on:

Practicalities of starting up a business:

- Business structures and their legal implications
- Financial management
- Tax management

How it can work:

First-hand experience from a local entrepreneur

Expert speakers:

- Ian Woollard, Director and Chartered Accountant, Pearson Buchholz Limited

Afterwards take the opportunity to network and talk to a chartered accountant business advisor for some free business advice. Tea and coffee provided by Oxford City Council.

Event organised by ICAEW in partnership with Oxfordshire Business Support (OBS).

Book your place online

Oxfordshire Business Support (OBS) is part of a growing range of integrated services for businesses provided through the Oxfordshire Local Enterprise Partnership (OxLEP) and its partners launched in 2014. For business support in Oxfordshire OBS:

- Signpost to local and national support via the OBS web portal and helpline
- Provide specialist advice and guidance through our Network Navigators
- Encourage start-ups, growth and innovation with a range of local products and services

For more on OBS information please contact:

Laurence Lingard-Bright, Business Support Officer, OBS

E: enquiries@oxfordshirebusinesssupport.co.uk

T: +44 (0)1865 261448

W: <http://www.oxfordshirebusinesssupport.co.uk>

ICAEW is the professional body for Chartered Accountants in England and Wales. In addition to its role in supporting and regulating ICAEW Chartered Accountants the ICAEW seeks to make a contribution to the UK growth agenda by raising confidence in financial awareness of SMEs and start-ups.

